

Please leave Indiana's privacy law alone. I have been much relieved by the drop off in phone solicitations since it went into effect. I get very few such unwanted calls now. Previously my evenings were deluged with these calls. I see no reason for my privacy to be invaded in this fashion.